Title: DMU Grand Rounds: Trans and Cis – A Conversation on Caring for the LGBT+ Community, November 7

Trans and Cis: A Conversation on Caring for the LGBT+ Community

Thursday, November 7 • 7-8 a.m. • Student Education Center Auditorium

All DMU faculty, staff, and students are invited to attend. Add to your Outlook calendar.

PURPOSE

This presentation will help providers and healthcare workers understand the community they will be working with and providing services for. By developing an understanding and relating to personal experiences providers will be able to provide culturally competent care to all the patients and client we serve.

OBJECTIVES

- Differentiate between sexual orientation and gender identity and the spectrums they encompass.
- Develop an understanding of the LGBT+ community and their unique health care needs.
- Consider why LGBT+ patients may avoid, underutilize and delay medical care and discuss how to make the medical environment more welcoming and inclusive.

SPEAKERS

Molly A. Uhlenhake, DO

*Assistant Professor of Internal Medicine and Pediatrics
The University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Medicine
Truman Medical Center
Children's Mercy Hospital*

Kim Tilson, BSN, RN

Nurse Care Manager, Truman Medical Center, Kansas City, MO
Kim is a transgender woman and has provided training for over 1600 individuals over 29 separate presentations in the last 16 months. She has developed and chaired multiple LGBTQ related health conferences and developed multiple programs for the LGBTQ community. She works not only in the healthcare community but also in the local LGBTQ community. As a registered nurse and a transwoman she brings perspectives to make this topic more personal and the community easier to relate to, allowing better care of our patients and clients.
