

DES MOINES UNIVERSITY
 CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION

Disclosure of Relevant Financial Relationships
AOA Standard 2.2.4.2, ACCME Criterion 7 (SCS 6), CPME 8.0

Des Moines University must ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all its individually sponsored education activities. This document must be completed by all individuals who have influence over the content of the educational activity (i.e., activity director(s), planning committee, faculty, etc). Any individual who refuses to disclose relevant financial relationships will be disqualified from influencing continuing medical education (CME) content and cannot have control of, or responsibility for, the development, management, presentation or evaluation of the activity. The intent of the disclosure is not to prevent an individual with a significant financial or other relationship from being involved in a CME activity, but rather to provide the audience with information on which they can make their own judgments. Persons who fail to sign and return this form are not eligible to be involved as a presenter/planner.

Disclosure of Relevant Financial Relationships

Relevant financial relationships are those in which an individual (including the individual's spouse/domestic partner) in the last 12 months has had a personal financial (any amount) relationship with a commercial interest who produces, markets, re-sells, or distributes health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients and/or who also has control over educational content (planning or presenting) about this activity. Providers of clinic services directly (i.e., clinics, hospitals, etc.) are NOT commercial interests.
