

DMU

Research Symposium

Des Moines University
Thursday, December 3
Lunch begins at 12 p.m.

ABSTRACT DEADLINE:
Tuesday,
November 24
by 3 p.m.

No classes will be scheduled so all students and faculty can attend and participate.

All students and faculty are encouraged to develop research projects to be presented at this event. Prizes will be awarded to the winning presenting author(s) (students and residents only) with the best quality oral abstract and poster presentation.

The Research Symposium aims to recognize the research efforts of those at Des Moines University and in the surrounding medical and scientific community by providing a forum for the collaboration of ideas, the production of new hypotheses, and to demonstrate to the attendees the critical role that research plays in the advancement of health care.
